PedSys Series

The PedSys Series Lab Bench gives you flexibility and choice when organizing your laboratory. Select a size (DxWxH), and then fill your pedestal-based bench with a storage package. With the PedSys Series, you can have drawers either on the left, right or both sides.

Worksurface materials include standard laminate, ESD laminate, phenolic resin and stainless steel enabling you to customize your work area.

For additional organization, install Uprights (Item 8535) and choose standard accessories. This combination allows you to tailor your work space storage, privacy enclosures and lighting.
